

Scholarship. Citizenship. Leadership.

For Immediate Release

Date: October 19, 2021

Hononegah Community High School Presents

The Diary of Adam and Eve

By Mark Twain

Adapted for the Stage by: Marc Bucci

To be performed LIVE

Friday, November 5, Saturday, November 6 at 7:00pm and Sunday, November 7 at 2:00pm

Come watch the first battle of the sexes! Hononegah Community High School will be doing a LIVE performance of Mark Twain's The Diary of Adam and Eve. This is a sweet, gently humorous telling of the traditional story and is an homage of love from Mark Twain to his wife. It's perfect for the entire family! Performances are November 5th and 6th 7 PM, or November 7th at 2 PM. Audience members will be required to wear masks while on HCHS campus, and ticket sales and seating arrangements will follow social distance guidelines.

The performance will be in the Hononegah Community High School Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $8 for adults and $6 for students K-12, under 5 are free. We ask that all attending keep in mind that social distancing as a family should be observed. Tickets may be purchased at the HCHS box office from 4:30pm – 6:00pm on November 1st, 2nd and 4th and one hour before each performance. A maximum of 400 tickets per performance will be available so get your tickets early. Tickets may also be purchased through the Hononegah Community High School website www.hononegah.org.

###

About Hononegah Community High School District

Hononegah is a public school district in Rockton, Illinois, located between Rockford and the southern border of Wisconsin. The District serves over 2,100 students from the towns of Rockton, Roscoe, Shirland, and parts of South Beloit. The District provides an inspiring and challenging educational experience that promotes reflective critical thinking, civic engagement, and personal development.